“My goal is to provide clients with sound, effective, practical legal advice. My personal strategy is to evaluate the client’s needs and communicate their legal options in a cost-effective manner.”

ReNae Nachman protects the interests of insurance companies and their insureds in personal injury, medical malpractice, dental malpractice, and wrongful death litigation. She also is experienced in contract disputes, including experience in defending and managing large civil claims alleging breach of contract and breach of fiduciary duty.

She has experience in representing individuals, businesses, bars, restaurants, subcontractors and general contractors against claims of negligence, breach of contract, breach of implied and express warranties, and against claims for indemnity, violations of statutes, and punitive damages.

ReNae’s experience also includes litigation of matters involving dram shop liability, personal injury, slip and fall accidents, automobile accidents, traumatic brain injury, construction defects, and veterinarian and dental malpractice.

She has also expanded her practice to include litigation in the areas of violation of vulnerable adult statute claims, temporary restraining orders, guardianship proceedings, estate planning (including wills, trusts and powers of attorney), probate of an estate, and estate controversies, including objections and challenges to wills or trust agreements.

ReNae earned her law degree at the Arizona State University College of Law in 2003 and received her bachelor’s degree in Justice Studies from ASU in 2000.

Outside of the office, ReNae spends time with family and friends and enjoys horses, trail riding, hiking and boating.
