

Maria C. Lomeli

Maria Lomeli's practice focuses on commercial litigation, insurance defense, and divorce and family law.

I have a long-held passion for the law. My goal is to help others and make a positive difference in their lives. My passion, experience and determination help me represent my clients' interests and help them achieve their goals.

A partner in the firm, Maria joined Schneider & Onofry in 2014 after completing a distinguished academic career at the University of Arizona's James E. Rogers College of Law, where she was an Articles Editor for the Arizona Journal of International & Comparative Law, received the Award for Outstanding Brief in Advanced Legal Writing, and was a member of the Latino Law Student Association and the Immigration Law Student Association. Maria also worked as a law clerk with the Arizona Capital Representation Project in Tucson.

Maria is an avid traveler, having backpacked for two months in South America and backpacked on safari in South Africa. Maria loves learning about new cultures and the people and makes it her goal to travel to a new country each year (most recently Peru, Ecuador and Argentina).
