

Susan I. McLellan

Susan McLellan's professional background as a registered nurse, with an emphasis in medical-surgical intensive care, provides invaluable knowledge and insight in representing health care clients in litigation and in administrative proceedings.

My more than ten years of clinical experience in intensive care nursing gives me a considerable advantage as an attorney in defending health care providers, in Phoenix and throughout Arizona, in litigation and in licensing and disciplinary challenges.

My more than ten years of clinical experience in intensive care nursing gives me a considerable advantage as an attorney in defending health care providers, in Phoenix and throughout Arizona, in litigation and in licensing and disciplinary challenges.

Susan McLellan is a litigation attorney with extensive trial experience in the areas of health care, medical malpractice, dental malpractice, and medical products liability defense litigation.

Susan's client base includes physicians, dentists, physical therapists, nurses, psychiatrists and other behavioral health providers, ancillary health care personnel, and manufacturers of medical and dental products. She is a frequent speaker before industry and professional groups.

In addition to defending health care providers in litigation matters, Susan provides representation in professional licensing and disciplinary matters before state licensing boards, including the:

- Arizona Medical Board
- Arizona State Board of Nursing
- Arizona State Board of Dental Examiners
- Arizona Regulatory Board of Physician Assistants
- Arizona State Board of Physical Therapy
- Arizona Board of Behavioral Health Examiners

When not involved with her law practice, Susan enjoys hiking, yoga, and exercising with her labrador retriever, Mrs. Beasley.
